2 New Yorkers Seen
In Line for Posts

Associated Press

Anthony Akers, a New York City attorney, is reported to be in line for appointment by President Kennedy as Ambassador to New Zealand.

Congressional sources said yesterday the Federal Bureau of Investigation has already begun to make a routine security check of Akers but his name has not yet been submitted to the Senate for confirmation.

Akers is a liberal Democrat who was defeated in 1954, 1956 and 1958 in attempts to win a congressional seat in New York's silk stocking district.

Congressional sources also reported that an FBI check is underway on Joseph E. Kelly of the Bronx, former New York Motor Vehicle Commissioner, who is reported in line for a Treasury Department post.
